The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever! Amen.

"I can do all things through him who strengthens me."
This verse reminds us that God's strength through Jesus can help us face challenges.

Snowball Mountain Challenge invites us to an exciting winter sports event full of new challenges, friends, and ways to learn that with God's help we can do more than we ever thought possible.

Tuesday – Held our last leadership retreat, which was a study of the book Canoeing the Mountains by Tod Bolsinger. After covering the last parts of the book, left the room so the leadership team talked about what they thought the next steps should be. A lot of talk about the culture of the church and our ministry area was overheard.

Wednesday – Walked in feeling refreshed from my weekend. Thank you to everyone for understanding the boundaries on those days. Today was a big day where our security grant projects were concerned. The final cameras were installed, which means all of our projects are FINISHED! Robert, the lead for Benson, helped us gain access to the system. I'm already impressed by the sophistication of the system. We will have training on this system at a later date. For now, just know that the coverage of the cameras is very extensive. Had to skip Preschool Chapel to go through the overview of the video system with Robert. Went out to visit a few home bound Church Family members. Pastoral care session. Security team meeting to discuss how to do an active shooter drill. We came to the conclusion that the best way for any of us to be prepared is to just be more aware. To help with this, the security team is going to "take over" a worship service in August. Don't worry, we'll find a way to make it biblical. The full "Monday" that the day had been, was grateful that our Wednesday Bible Study group agreed to an Upper Room study for this night. Back to Acts next week! Was grateful to get the news that Lorena Meier's surgery went very well!

Thursday - Finished orders of worship for the last Sunday in May. Also connected with my very good friend, Barry Stein who will be playing the songs for David Fridley's memorial service.

(Reminder...Saturday, May 30th @ 10:30 am) Barry's picked some lovely classical pieces for prelude, postlude, and musical gift.)

Tried to pay a visit to a special 100 yr old lady who was in a nursing home. After a very expansive tour of the south part of Kingman, with no luck in finding the facility where she was supposed to be guess who finally decided to call them? You guessed it...me. And guess what I was told when I made said call. "She's not here". Le Sigh. Now arranging for a home visit. Hung out with the Vets Dinner peeps for a bit. I really appreciate their dedication to serving those who served. Back to church to get ready for the Thursday night worship service. I highly recommend attending this worship occasionally. It's a different vibe. Mike delivers some pretty cool music.

Friday – Flew into the education wing just in time to pray with our Nana's Pantry helpers. Also had a chance to go say hi to the TOPS gang. Haven't been able to do that for a while. Since we didn't get done with the leadership retreat on Tuesday til after 7:30, I told Heidi she could leave after Nana's Pantry today. We ended up making it a lunch at Chili's! Bryan joined too. Yum, yum, yum and fun, fun, fun! Back to church to take care of a few other things. Then home to enjoy a delicious catfish dinner prepared by Suzanne.

Saturday – Arrived at church by 9. Settled in to running through the sermon several times and pulling together the other parts of the service. For announcements this means finding another scripture that ties to the sermon theme, creating an opening prayer, making sure the 3-4 announcements I choose are the most important ones, and making sure I have any known birthdays and anniversaries marked down. For children’s message, deciding the theme which is usually what I talk about in my sermon. But this week I decided to lean on Pentecost. From there I make sure I can get any props I’ll use. For pastoral prayer it simply means writing the pastoral prayer. 😊 For the benediction it means coming up with an appropriate “Challenge” from the sermon, choosing an appropriate question for the list of 22 John Wesley Holy Club questions, and then choosing a meaningful thought from the sermon for the benediction. Today I’m pleased to say that I was able to get everything done before I left.

Sunday – Arrived at church and worked to pull everything together, we had an extra and wonderful thing for each service, receiving new members! In the first service we welcomed Glynn Baker into membership. In the second service we welcomed Carol King. Thanks to Scott and Camille for presenting Glynn and to Krystal for presenting Carol. Now to put them to work. After service put the sermon message into practice. We helped a brother in need with a bus ticket to his place in Washington St. He contributed some money to this. I paid for the rest through Helping Hands. Since it was the holiday weekend, decided to leave a little early. The girls and I had the rare opportunity to eat out at a restaurant. Calicos was surprisingly quiet. I guess everyone in town was at the river. Love this restaurant. Consistently good food! Great kick-off to Memorial Day weekend!

Because of you, life doesn't stop.

BLOOD DRIVE

St. Johns United Methodist Church

Saturday, June 6, 2026
8:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

55 DONORS NEEDED
Fellowship Hall-Multipurpose Room
1730 Kino Avenue
Kingman,

Be Someone's Lifeline. If you've never donated blood before, you have the power to change a life. With fewer Americans giving blood each year, patients facing trauma, cancer, and chronic illness need new donors to step forward. There is no substitute for human blood—only generous people like you. Share the impact by inviting a friend to donate for the first time. When they give, you can both receive $10 through Vitalant's Refer a Friend program—because saving lives is better together. Make your first appointment and bring a friend. Find out more at vitalant.org/ReferAFriend.

Do you want to make a difference in someone's life in just 1 hour? You can donate blood. We are always looking for first time donors. If you are a blood donor, please encourage someone you know to donate. Thank you for being a lifesaver and helping the community!

Chair Yoga

Chair yoga is a gentle practice in which postures are performed while seated and/or with the aid of a chair. Chair yoga classes typically target those with physical disabilities or aging men and women who find a typical yoga session too challenging. It is also a great form of yoga for beginners or anyone who wants to focus on a gentle practice.
