Reflections from the Rev.

On February 18th, we will observe Ash Wednesday which is the official start of the season we call Lent. For my newsletter article this month, let's talk about our Lenten traditions. Why they were adopted, how they were practiced and any significant changes to those practices in our time. We'll also talk about the risk we might take in observing the practice of giving up something for Lent.

A conversation about Lent and Lenten traditions needs to start by talking about the day before Ash Wednesday. We call this day Fat Tuesday. You might better know it as Mardi Gras. When we say Mardi Gras, you might be tempted to think about the wild and outlandish celebrations in New Orleans. But there is more to Mardi Gras than that. Lent was associated with fasting and repentance. So back in medieval times people started using the Tuesday before as a time to clean out all of the sugar and yeast so they wouldn't be tempted during lent. They also used up any meat they had. Today, many churches celebrate this day with a pancake supper. Our family always observes Fat Tuesday by making pancakes for dinner.

To understand the timing of Ash Wednesday and Lent, we need to look forward to Easter. What did the medieval church use to set the date for Easter? They used the moon. Yes, you heard me right, the moon. Easter is on the first Sunday on or after the first full moon after the spring equinox. This year the Spring Equinox or first day of spring is on March 20th. The next full moon after that is on April 2nd. The next Sunday after that is April 5th, which makes that our Easter Sunday this year. Now that we have that date, we count 46 days back and where does that land us? Wednesday, February 18th, Ash Wednesday for 2026. So we say that Lent is 40 days, but we just counted back 46 days. What gives?

You're right. Lent is 40 days spanning over 6 weeks. But each week we have a Sunday. Every Sunday is considered a mini-Easter? When you walk into church each Sunday, you're walking into a mini celebration of the resurrection. So the reason why we only count 40 days of Lent even though there are 46 days until Easter is we don't count the Sundays. Fasting is strongly encouraged during Lent. But everyone gets a break from fasting on Sundays.

One of my favorite observances of Ash Wednesday is the Imposition of Ashes. Why do we do this? The tradition goes back not just to Christian but to Jewish history. Ashes were a sign of mortality and repentance. Mortality, because when we die, our bodies eventually decompose. We become dust/dirt/ash. Repentance, because long ago, when people felt remorse for something they did, they would put ashes on their heads and wear sackcloth or burlap. This was to remind them of how uncomfortable sin is and how it leads to a death of the spirit. Ashes were a way to confess sins and ask for forgiveness.

Where do our ashes come from? Traditionally, ashes come from the palm leaves that are waved on the prior Palm Sunday. With this, we remember that the palm leaves were used in celebration on Palm Sunday and then less than a week later Jesus is killed. Palms that were waved in joy become ashes of sorrow. Originally, the ashes were mixed with a little bit of water to represent tears. Since then, we've learned that using a mixture of ashes and water is caustic. It creates lye! So now we use oil or nothing.

During the imposition, ashes are rubbed across one's forehead in the sign of a cross. The ashes remind us of our mortality and sin. The cross reminds us of Jesus's resurrection and forgiveness.

Lent is a season of repentance. There are many ways to do this. The most common way is to fast or "give up something" for lent. This doesn't have to be just food. You can do things like give up online games, or sleeping in. Service is another way to celebrate this season of repentance. Instead of giving up something you can take on something. Finally, we can pray and pray intentionally.

This year, our Lenten Sermon series will be a call for us to Pause. To experience Lent through the Psalms. We will begin on Ash Wednesday with Psalm 51 where we ask God to create in us a clean heart. May Lent 2026 move us to a spirit of reflection and repentance.

Blessings!

Rev. Amy

A Message from Our Lay Leader

Good, Good, Good Vibrations

Music seems to be common among all societies and all religions. In the movie Close Encounters of the Third Kind, it was assumed to be the best way to communicate to aliens to our planet. Sound, song is about vibrations and their affect on our bodies. Have you ever had a cat in your lap purring? It is a very soothing vibration. When I am in extreme stress, I like to open the church hymnal and sing the songs I know, until my vibration returns to a calm state. Fifteen or twenty minutes will do that for me.

Put your palm to the front of your throat and hum. Feel the vibration?

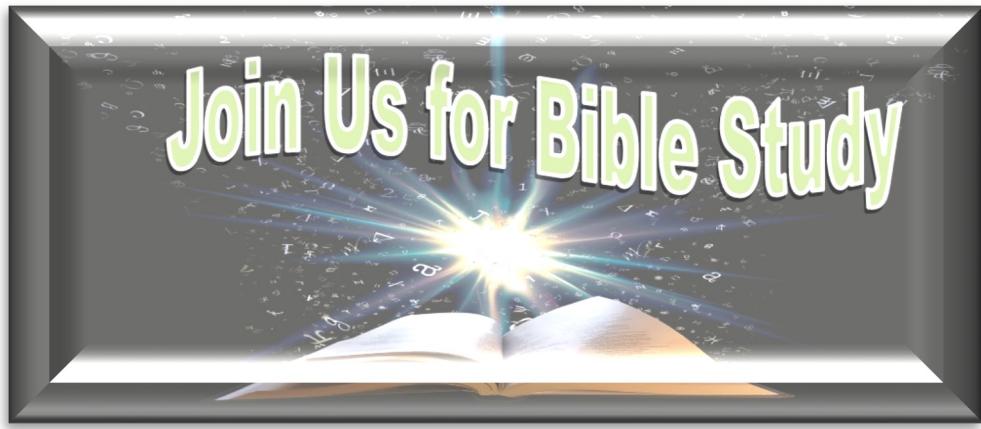

I want to share the magic healing vibrations of song with you. I want to start a group of people who want to share in healing vibration with me. This group is not about performance or talent. It is about the power of learning and healing through vibration. We might decide to sing for others or not. We might decide for some of us to share with others or not. The group is for all ages and genders.

Good singers, bad singers, everyone can learn to make soothing vibrations. I believe our lives are about learning. My father lived to almost 100 years old. He was always curious. Curiosity gives us forward momentum, a future, an adventure.

Let's talk about this. Let me know if you are interested.

Sharing with Others to Know
More About Life,

Terry Crawford
Lay Leader
